High School Class Entertained.

A company from the first year class of the Marion high school was entertained by Miss Glade Lucas at her home, seven miles north of Marion, Saturday afternoon. The afternoon was spent in gathering hickory nuts after which a luncheon was served. The young folks indulged in a taffy pulling and spent the evening with music and games.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucas accompanied the young folks to and from the car line with an old-fashioned hay ride. Those who enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Lucas were Misses Ruth King, Elsie Kehler, Callie Leeper, Blanche Bain, Editha King, Mabel Lusch, Helen Krouse, Goldeth Lindsay, Ruth Toban and Glade Lucas, and Willard Knightley and Grant Lemon. Those aside from the classmates were Dillard Massie, Joseph Smith and Verne Lucas.

Gary Musician Praised.

Miss Mary Dennison Galley, the violinist, who playing at the Ovide Music studio in New York created quite a sensation, is making a tour of the west. Miss Galley will play in about one hundred concerts and recitals. In New York her rendition of the Beethoven Concerto, the British Concerto in G Minor and Lalo's Symphonie Espagnole, revealed the fact that she is an artist who measures to the exacting standards.—Musical Courier.

EVELYN MARIE STEWART.

New York, Oct. 14.—A velvet gown, with embellishment of fur and heavy embroidery is surely rich enough for a princess of the blood. The gown here illustrated is indeed in a royal combination of color, black velvet enlivened with the fashionable vivid purple which is seen in the underskirt and revers of corded silk, and in the deep bands of embroidery.

The bodice is made with one long rever of purple, at the right side, with a frill of cream lace attached to the gulle, relieving the plainness at the left. A row of purple embroidery buttons, with loops of purple silk, further embellish this side. French knots of purple silk give a touch of color down the front of the cream lace gulle, and a band of the purple silk finishes the high-boned collar.

The sleeves of the gown are cut in two large scallops, with frills of cream lace, filling in the point between, just above the elbows. Purple embroidery finishes the sleeves and borders the rever and the end of the tunic, while the purple underskirt is edged with a band of black skunk fur. A unique feature of this picturequely rich robe is the long sash end, depending from the purple embroidery belt buckle. This pendant sash is of black velvet, finished with purple embroidery and knotted fringe of purple silk.

nings, the county president, was made state organizer for Marion county, and Mrs. N. L. Gebhardt state superintendent of scientific temperance instruction.

Marion county and city people can be justly proud of the showing made by this organization and besides the conferring of prominent offices upon some of the delegates they were shown signal distinction in other ways. Miss Frances Ensign, the state president, publicly complimented the local organization and stated that any favor requested by the delegates for the local union would be conferred.

At this convention, 450 delegates represented the membership of 52,000 W. C. T. U. workers.

Club Disbands.

The members of the Married Woman's club held a meeting Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Frank Cressap on Orchard street. The members have decided to disband this organization and made of the last meeting a social one.

The hostess had arranged many delightful diversions to assist in the enjoyment of the evening, and these in conjunction with music and social conversation whiled away the evening happily. Refreshments were served during the course of the evening.

Guests of the hostess, besides the members were: Mrs. Thomas Clay of Columbus, and Mrs. Philip Uhl.

Master Commissioner Holds Session.

Attorney James H. Eymon, appointed by Judge Babst as master commissioner to hear claims against the C. D. & M. today held a session in the common pleas court room. Twenty-four disputed claims are being threshed out before the master commissioner who will hear matters in connection with the receivership tangle from time to time.

Marriage License.

A marriage license has been issued to Henry Duerst, Jr., and Miss Ella Egil.

A petition to quiet title has been filed by Princess M. Shough against C. E. Foster and John and Emma Herr. The petition relates that on December 19, 1904, John and Emma Herr owned lot 3091 in Eden Park addition to the city of Marion; that on that date they executed a mortgage to Foster for $1,000. Plaintiff says she subsequently bought this lot from the Herrs and it was represented to be free from encumbrance other than a mortgage held by a loan association. Foster now claims some interest in the property adverse to her interest and she wants the title quieted. DeGolley & DeGolley represent the plaintiff.

A rather important ruling was made in the common pleas court today in the matter of May R. Flickinger and others, executors, against May R. Flickinger and others, involving the validity of certain portions of the will of the late Davidson McWilliams. Mr. Williams was a pioneer resident of Marion and one of her wealthiest citizens.

His will bequeathed all his property to his two daughters, Mrs. Flickinger and Mrs. Susan P. Hodder and their heirs. It provided that no part of the property be sold within fifteen years after the death of Mr. McWilliams, unless the consent of the heirs be given and unless it were absolutely necessary to pay debts etc.

The two daughters were appointed executors of the will and shortly after it was probated a petition to sell real estate. The matter was then taken to the common pleas court where, in a petition, it was explained that the conditions of the will were such that the estate could not be administered to advantage. The result is that the court appoints Mrs. Flickinger and Mrs. Hodder trustees, with the power to sell and reinvest the proceeds in real estate in Marion county, thereby nullifying that portion of the will which forbade a sale of the property within fifteen years after the death of Mr. McWilliams.

In the action of Jesse Hess against Mary A. Pryor and others, to quiet title to a piece of real estate, the plaintiff has been given leave to plead by November 4, leave having been asked for the purpose of naming new parties defendant.

Leave to file and amended petition has been granted in the partition case of Abbot A. Lawrence against Mary E. Benner and others.

The defendants have filed a demurrer in the action of the Aarons Association, Theaters company, against Henry Strellitz and others. The demurrer alleges a misjoinder of parties and says there are not sufficient facts stated to constitute a cause of action.

A petition for naturalization has been filed with the clerk of courts by Clemento Valentine, an Italian 34 years of age. The matter is for hearing May 2, 1912.

Error is Alleged.

A petition in error was filed in the circuit court this afternoon by Attorneys Belcher & Connor, of Columbus, and Fred W. Warner of this city, for Frank M. Smith against Hone W. Donithen. This is the case in which Smith charged Donithen with fraud in the transfer of the Greenwood Street Lumber company to Mr. Donithen and sued for $5,000 damages. The common pleas court directed a verdict for the defendant and scored all parties for the apparent shattering of business ethics in the deal. The usual grounds of error are set up in the plaintiff's petition in the circuit court.

Expects to Get Figures to Decide on County Levy This Week.

he was having his salary entirely cut off while Mr. Spaulding's was being increased.

The new auditor has the promise of the board of review that it will turn over enough figures the latter part of the week to give the tax budget commission some idea of what the county levy may be made. It is necessary to get these levies on the duplicate at the earliest possible moment. In some cases the levy will have to be estimated rather than based on actual figures as it will be impossible for the budget commission to wait until all the figures are available.

Mr. Spaulding is of the opinion, however, that the levy will be much lower in Marion county than it is in many of the surrounding counties and explains this by the fact that Marion county property owners have been making the proper sort of returns to get the proper results under the Smith bill.

ELEANOR SEARS TRIES TRIAL ENGAGEMENT

LARGE DIVIDENDS.

LARGE DIVIDENDS tell of skillful and capable management on the part of the company. If the death losses are low, it signifies that extreme care has been exercised in the selection of applicants. If the expense of management is low, it shows that the company is economical and prudently managed. If the rate of interest realized on investments is high—and the securities are safe—it means that the Company invests the policyholders' money to the greatest advantage.

If you want a policy in a Company that does all of the above, take a policy in the UNION CENTRAL.
